Legislative.

THURSDAY, Jan. 23.

SENATE.—Several bills were introduced and "progress" made on others, but nothing of startling importance occurred.

ASSEMBLY.—Nothing of special interest transpired during the morning hour in the assembly. Mr. Platto (dem.) was added to the war fund investigating committee.— The special order, Mr. Pope's resolutions in opposition to the doctrines of the so-called state rights resolutions of the legislature of 1859, was taken up, and the day fooled away in a rambling debate without taking any question on the resolutions.

County Board of Supervisors.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, Jan. 23.

The board met and proceeded to business.

The committee on settlement with county officers reported an examination into the books of the clerk of the board, and found them correct.

Mr. N. D. Parker was finally allowed $80 on his bill for services performed for the district attorney.

Several bills of small amounts were reported upon and allowed, and one or two of respectable size.

Mr. Carpenter proposed the following additional rule, which was adopted:

RULE 20.—No claim for costs in justices' courts will be allowed, unless the same sets forth the disposition of each case in which costs are charged, whether such costs were charged to the county or the parties, and the affidavit attached to said account, made by any person, whether justice, constable or witness, shall state that such costs were taxed to the county.

Adjourned to to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock.

FRIDAY MORNING, Jan. 24.

The board met pursuant to adjournment, and proceeded to the business of a final adjournment.

On motion of Mr. Parker, the thanks of the board were tendered to the chairman and clerk for the manner in which they have discharged their duties during the sessions of the board.

Orders were directed to be issued for the per diem and mileage of members of the board. Adjourned.

ROCK COUNTY CAVALRY.—Nathaniel Parker has been elected captain, F. A. Kimball 1st lieutenant, and J. C. Metcalf 2d lieutenant of the Rock county cavalry. Commissions have been issued, and the company ordered to report at the camp in Milwaukee next Tuesday.

APPOINTMENTS.—The president has nominated Judge Swain, of Ohio, to the United States supreme court bench to fill the place vacated by the death of Judge McLean, and the senate has confirmed the appointment of John L. Motley as minister to Austria.

TONING DOWN.—Among the most malignant of the pursuers of Gen. Fremont, from his coming to Missouri until he was superseded, has been the New York World, and ever since that time it has indulged its spite in occasional detraction. Some change has come over the spirit of its dream. The following paragraph from that paper seems to recognize some great qualities, at least, in the man who for months has been the target for envenomed abuse in the columns of the World:

"It would be a good thing to assign to General Fremont a command in the army adapted to his adventurous and enterprising temper. In a command which did not so much require organizing and combining faculties as activity and dash, he would probably acquire great personal distinction, and the multitudes who believe in him would forget his scotched emancipationisms in their admiration of his brilliant exploits."

So much is conceded for the present.— The time will come when the origin and motive of the combined assault on General Fremont in every form of calumnious accusations, will be understood. This is no time for controversy about the merits or demerits of any officer. There is other work to do. But we believe Gen. Fremont has abundant resources not only to defend his own reputation, but to overwhelm his accusers with disgraceful discomfiture.— St. Louis Democrat.

THE SIXTEENTH REGIMENT.—The following is a nearly complete list of the officers of this regiment, now in camp at Madison:

Women should set good examples, for the men are always following them.

Gen. Jim Lane at Chicago.

Gen. Lane arrived at Chicago on Tuesday night. The next day an immense assemblage of people called upon him at the Tremont. In the afternoon he reviewed the troops at Camp Douglas, to whom he made a speech, in which he expounded his views of the nature of the war, and expressed his ardent desire that they should accompany him on his great expedition.

In the evening Gen. Lane made the following speech to the people who gathered to pay their respects to him at the Tremont:

The General expressed his profound gratitude for the reception and the ardor and enthusiasm manifested. However much he might be delighted, he appreciated the fact that this enthusiasm was not on account of Jim Lane, but the fact that Jim Lane was the advocate of crushing out this rebellion so that we should never have another.

The uppermost fact in every loyal man's mind was that this rebellion must be crushed in some way. He knew there was not a loyal man present who was unwilling to lay down his own life, and sacrifice even his own family to accomplish this result. There was no resolution so strong among all true patriots as that, demanding that the rebellion must be put down so as to stay down. The curse of slavery has been agitated long enough, and it must now be radically cured. For eight long months the north has been contending against the rebels, and what have we got to show for it? What results have been accomplished—what advantages obtained? For eight long months the government has been prosecuting this war so as to hurt nobody. It is time some one was hurt. We were willing enough to kill white men in the south and to allow them to be killed in the north but we were afraid of committing sacrilege if we touched the sacred negro. [Cries of "that's so."] Yes, afraid to touch the sacred negro who has caused the whole of this trouble. But let me tell you the government has got over this notion, the people have got over it, and I think I can certify that this crowd have got over it. [Applause and cries of "yes, we have."] We have been permitted to discuss all questions human and divine, all questions of society, of morals and religion, to canvass the character of God and the nature of his laws, but have been forbidden to say a word about the viper which has stung us in our bosoms.

It is no time for talking now, but for action. We have consumed eight months in inactivity, have wasted three hundred millions of dollars and sacrificed twenty-five thousand lives, and turned this country upside down in our insane endeavors to put down this infernal rebellion and save slavery. I tell you it can't be done, and the government has come to that conclusion. Let me tell you, confidentially, that on Monday last they opened a new set of books and came to the conclusion that if the Union can't be saved and slavery saved, then down goes slavery. The rebels have either got to submit, to die or to run away. I tell you the time has come when play must stop.— The rebels must submit or be sent down forthwith to that hell already yawning to receive them.

This desirable consummation was effected by a compromise. The radical men agreed that the conservative men should carry on the war according to their notions, for eight months, provided they were allowed the next eight. The time is up for the conservatives, and they now hand the war and its conduct over to the radicals, and every conservative man should now extend the same encouragement and support which we gave to them in the prosecution of their method.

There are slaves in the south 680,000 strong and loyal male slaves who have fed and clothed the rebel army and have as good as fought upon their side. Government now proposes that these loyal slaves shall feed and clothe our army and fight on our side. The other day while I was talking with the President, old Abe said to me, "Lane, how many black men do you want to have to take care of your army?" I told him as my army would number 34,000 I proposed to have 34,000 contrabands in addition to my teamsters and wagon-masters. I consider every one of my soldiers engaged in this glorious crusade of freedom a knight errant, and entitled to his squire to prepare his food, black his boots, load his gun and take off his drudgery. Vanity and pride are necessary adjuncts of the soldier, and I do not propose to lower him by menial offices, nor compel him to perform the duties of a slave. So while I shall elevate the slave by giving him his freedom and making a man of him, I shall also elevate the soldier and leave him no work to do but fighting [A voice in the crowd— "What are you going to do with the niggers?"]

The General singling out the owner of the voice, and pointing his long finger at him, replied: "Ah, my friend, you are just the man I have been looking for. I will tell you what I am going to do with them. I am going to plant them on the soil of the gulf coast, after we have got through with this war, let them stay there and cultivate the land; have the government extend a protection to them, as it does to the Indians, and send superintendents and governors among them and pay them wages for their labor. There could be no competition between black and white labor." He believed, whether the rebels liked the idea or not, that the blacks at no distant day would have possession of that gulf country, to which they were acclimated and physically conditioned. He proposed to establish free state governments as he went along, and he could promise his hearers that either he or the rebels would be cleaned out.

After urging the benefit of a vigorous prosecution of the war, the General closed by again thanking the crowd for the handsome reception, and retired to the parlors amid most enthusiastic applause, where he was soon engaged in more presentations.

As regards the General's military movements during this visit, not much is known with certainty. The Mechanic Fusileers will probably join him at Fort Leavenworth, but an uncertainty exists as to which of the other regiments in Camp Douglas will be assigned to his expedition. The desire for participating in this forward movement is universal, and tenders of cavalry and infantry regiments are pouring in from every part of the country, especially from Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. Prominent officers have even designated their willingness to go as privates, such is the intense desire to be sharers in the great expedition and its glorious results.

General Lane and party left at 11.30 yesterday morning, by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

VALUATION AND TAX OF ROCKFORD.—The valuation of the city of Rockford, which includes a large extent of farming lands, is $1,116,402. The assessed tax is $11,164,01 for schools, $5,577 67 for interest, and $,586 35 for general purposes. Total, $22,-328 04.

If you are conscious of being green, and don't want folks to see it, try to be an invisible green.

Important from the Indian Country.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Fort Leavenworth, under date of Jan. 15th, says:

The news from the Indian country is of great interest. On the arrival home of the Indian delegations from Washington, they represented the magnitude of the federal forces, and their vast resources for carrying on the war, to the several tribes, who at once collected a large force and declared themselves in behalf of the Union. This Indian army, numbering near four thousand men, was placed under the command of Ho-pothe-yo-ho-la, an aged Creek chieftain who fought under Jackson in the war of 1812, and is at present well known to the national officers. The principal chiefs under him were Yuston-rick-co-chokme, Pascofar, Chio-fo-lop-haigo, Ah-ha-luck, Yustemigo, and Sua-muckee-micco—mostly of the Seminoles.

This force, armed with common hunting rifles and bows and arrows, and stationed on the Verdegris river, near Coody's Bluffs, was attacked on Christmas day by Ben McCullough's Texan Rangers and a large force of rebel Indians, and after a desperate conflict was defeated. Two hundred of the Cherokees stood their ground until every man but one was killed. The Creeks fled before the desperate charge of the rangers. The Seminoles took advantage of the ground, and acquitted themselves in a manner worthy of the highest praise.

One incident of this battle for freedom we would fain notice, as the historian may fail to chronicle it, to-wit, the heroic conduct of Ho-pothe-yo-ho-la, the silver-haired chieftain in command, who, having been driven from his first position by an irresistible charge of the enemy, sought a second one, and declared his intention of dying rather than retreat further, and he was only prevented from carrying out this declaration by being seized by two of his warriors and carried off the field, whilst a dauntless band of his braves covered his retreat, by opposing the pursuing foe in the most unflinching and fearless manner. Three hundred Cherokees (commanded by John Ross) were stationed between the mouths of the Verdigris and Grand rivers. The latest intelligence from that quarter is that they were surrounded by the rebels, and it is supposed they have been entirely cut to pieces ere now.

The result of the war in the Indian Territory has proved very destructive to the loyal tribes who have been compelled to leave their towns to the mercy of an unsparing foe. It is the belief of the principal chiefs that they would have been able to have stood their ground had they not been destitute of ammunition. Gen. Hunter had ordered 4,500 pounds of ammunition to be loaded into wagons on yesterday, while Mr. Johnson, agent of the Delawares, secured the services of twenty-five warriors to serve as an escort, and the writer was to accompany the expedition; but before the arrival of the time appointed for our departure intelligence was received of the total rout of the loyal tribes, and their arrival in southern Kansas, where some thirteen thousand men, women and children are now awaiting assistance from the government—they being destitute, having to leave their homes in such haste as to prevent them from making the necessary preparation for their comfort. And when we consider that these hapless mortals were, in their destitute condition, forced to travel for eight days through an uninhabited country, we may have a faint realization of the amount of suffering which they must have endured. This news was received on yesterday evening, and on this morning Gen. Hunter depatched sixteen wagons, laden with ammunition, flour and bacon, to the relief of the reprtoed sufferers. E. H. Corruth, the celebrated mediator between the government and the Indians, will, by order of Gen. Hunter, start to southern Kansas on to-morrow, for the purpose of taking the census of all the tribes represented, and at the same time will organize the warriors into regiments, which will at once apply for acceptance into the government service, and will no doubt, prove efficient auxilaries, as Mr. Corruth, who has just arrived from their headquarters, reports them filled with revenge, and desirous of at once being led against an enemy who vanquished them, because destitute of the necessary munitions to enable them to make a successful resistance.

A telegraphic despatch from Leavenworth, dated Jan. 22, states that Hopthegohola, chief of the union Indians alluded to above, has arrived there to confer with Gen. Hunter, and that Col. Jennison's regiment of cavalry is ordered to the Indian country. It might be pertinent to enquire whether this massacre of loyal Indians would have occurred if Fremont had not been deprived of his command, and the army ordered to retreat from its advance towards the Indian country? Those who caused that ill-advised and shameful blunder have another sin to answer for in the present condition of the loyal tribes of that now desolated region.

General Order in Respect to the Battle at Mill Spring.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Jan. 22, 1862.

The President, commander-in-chief of the army and navy, has received information of a brilliant victory achieved by the United States forces over a large body of armed traitors and rebels at Mill Spring, in the state of Kentucky. He returns thanks to the gallant officers and soldiers who won that victory, and when the official reports shall be received, the military skill and personal valor displayed in the battle will be acknowledged and rewarded in a fitting manner. The courage that encountered and vanquished the greatly superior numbers of the traitor force, pursued and attacked them in their entrenchments, and paused not until the enemy was completely routed, merits and receives commendation.

The purpose of this war is to attack, pursue and destroy the rebellious enemy, and to deliver the country from the danger menaced by traitors. Alacrity, daring, courageous spirit and patriotic zeal on all occasions and under every circumstance, are expected from the army of the United States. In the prompt and spirited movements, and daring shown in the battle of Mill Spring, the nation will realize its hopes and the people will rejoice to honor every soldier and officer who proved his courage by charging with the bayonet and storming entrenchments in the blaze of the enemy's fire. By order of the president.

(Signed) EDWIN M. STANTON.

DISLOYALTY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.—The Potter committee, appointed by the house, says the correspondent of the New York Times, to investigate the fidelity of the clerks and other employees of the government about Washington, have suspended their labors and are preparing their report. It will be very long, and must create much excitement in the country, as the committee must come to the conclusion that at least five hundred persons employed in the departments here are disloyal to the government, and would rejoice to see Jeff. Davis in possession of Washington. The report will be very severe upon Mr. Smith, secretary of the interior, showing that Jacob Thompson's old disunion clerk and his own (Smith's family and friends) draw two-thirds of the salaries in his department. They charge that Mr. Smith and at least one other secretary have treated the respectful inquiries of a congressional committee with contempt, and balked their efforts to purge the public service of traitors. The sympathies of the country will be with the committee, for the people know that the government has been harrassed and nearly ruined by spies in Washington. The report will be finished this week, and published at an early day.

Last Night's Report.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 22.

A report by Adjutant General Harding to Gov. Gamble shows that nearly 33,882 Missouri troops have entered the federal service for three years or the war, of which 25,000 are infantry, 3,000 artillery and 6,000 cavalry. The number of militia organized under the Governor's call for six months men, was upwards of 6,000.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 22.

Gen. Thomas now reports the federal loss 39 killed and 127 wounded. Among the wounded is Col. McCook of the ninth Ohio and his aid, Lieutenant Burt, of the eighteenth U. S. Infantry.

The rebel loss was Zollicoffer and 114 others killed and buried, 116 wounded and 45 prisoners not wounded, five of which were surgeons and Lieut. Carter, of the seventeenth Tenn. regiment.

The prisoners say Geo. B. Crittenden was first in command, and Zollicoffer second.

Crittenden fled to the woods, taking the wrong road. It is supposed he will be captured.

The federal forces actively engaged was the tenth Indiana, fourth Kentucky, second Minnesota and ninth Ohio. Their respective loss is in the order named.— They were reinforced in the first and severest engagement by the tenth and twelfth Kentucky, first and second Tennessee, fourteenth, thirty-first, thirty-fifth and thirty-eighth Ohio, and Standard's, Whitmor's and Kenney's batteries.

The rebel force was estimated at 10,000.

Green C. Clay, of Bourbon county, son of Brutus Clay, aid to Schœpff, but with Gen. Thomas in the engagement, has just arrived, bringing an elegant silk flag, belonging to the rebels, inscribed:

"Presented to the Mountain Rangers, Capt. F. A. Ashford, by Mrs. W. D. Chardevoyne."

Col. S. S. Fry, of the fourth Kentucky, had his horse shot from under him by one of Zollicoffer's aids, when he turned and shot Zollicoffer through the left breast.

The first breaking of the rebel ranks was effected by Col. R. S. McCook, of Ohio, acting as brigadier general, ordering his regiment to charge bayonets, which put the rebels to flight.

The last order the rebels issued was found in their encampment, and was signed by Col. Cummings, directing the rebels to disperse and save themselves the best way they could.

The Journal says that General Thomas with a large force has crossed the Cumberland, is hunting the flying rebels through Wayne county.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.

House committee on judiciary, to-day, commenced the investigation of telegraph censorships.

The following was received at headquarters to-night, from Gen. Thomas:

The rout of the enemy is complete.— After getting two cannon and about fifty wagons across the river, they abandoned them with all the ammunition in the depot at Mill Spring. They then threw away their arms and dispersed through the mountains in the direction of Monticello, so demoralized that they will not make a stand short of Tennessee.

The property captured this side of the river is of great value, amounting to 8 six-pounders and 2 Parrott guns, with caisons filled with ammunition, about 400 four-horse wagons, about 1,200 horses and mules, boxes of arms, never opened, and from 500 to 1,000 muskets, mostly flint locks, subsistence stores for the entire army for three days, and a large amount of hospital stores.

Our loss is 39 killed and 127 wounded. The rebels lost 114 killed and buried, 116 wounded, and 45 prisoners—unwounded—5 of whom are surgeons, and Lieut. Col. Carter, of a Tennessee regiment.

BOSCOBEL, Jan. 23.

Wood train ran over a young man named Rufus J. Totten at this station this afternoon. He was foolishly trying to get on the train as it was passing the station. He fell between the cars and is badly mangled and can live but a short time. He was warned by the conductor to keep off the cars.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 23.

The Somerset correspondent of the Times gives the following account of the battle:—At 7 o'clock, Sunday morning, the enemy drove in the pickets of the 10th Indiana, stationed at the forks of the road, eight miles from Somerset. The 10th were drawn up in line of battle, and moved into the woods, where they were met by the enemy, six thousand strong, who instantly opened upon them. Gen. Thomas immediately ordered up the 9th Ohio, 2d Minnesota and 4th Kentucky, to the support of the 10th Indiana. The latter holding the enemy in check nearly half an hour, before being reinforced. The 1st and 2d Tennessee were ordered up on the right for the purpose of outflanking the enemy. Kinney's and Wetmore's batteries in the meantime shelling the enemy in the woods. After an engagement of nearly two hours, the 9th Ohio, 2d Minnesota, and 4th Kentucky made a desperate charge upon the enemy, drove them from the woods, completely routing and pursuing them to their entrenchments. At the heat of the engagement, Capt. Kinney ordered one section of his battery to within 60 yards of the enemy's line, and opened a deadly fire upon them, which added greatly to the success of the day.

Our advance arrived within sight of the enemy's entrenchments one hour before dark and opened upon them with shot and shell. Night closing in put a stop to further demonstrations.

At daylight next morning, a steamboat was observed transporting troops across the Cumberland, when Wetmore's battery of Parrott guns was brought to bear on the boat, which, in a few minutes afterwards, was in flames. The 4th Kentucky and 14th Ohio were ordered forward by Gen. Thomas, to charge on the enemy's breastworks; moving up in line of battle and scaling the entrenchments, they found the camp entirely deserted and everything standing as when occupied by the enemy. Houses, tents, horses, mules, wagons, baggage, cannon, ammunition and fire arms were found in perfect preservation. The enemy's forces in the attack were led by Crittenden and Zollicoffer, and were 8,000 strong. The federal force in the fight did not exceed 3,000.

CAIRO, Jan. 22.

The 55th Illinois regiment (Col Stuart's) has just arrived on the steamer D. A. January. They have been ten days on the river. The regiment is in good condition and in excellent spirits.

Capt. Dubarry, of the regular army, arrived here last night with orders to report for duty in the commissary department at this post.

The Ohio river has risen very rapidly, and much higher than for many seasons.— The garrison at Fort Holt is to be removed in consequence.

It is ascertained that a shell from one of the St. Louis gunboat's rifled guns exploded within the entrenchments near Columbus, killing and wounding 21 persons.

Preparations for an advance are now as actively progressing as before the late expedition.

Fort Jefferson is still occupied, and I judge will be in considerable force.

Troops are arriving every day. Everything in the movements indicates that Western Kentucky will be the field of operations for the forces under Gen. Grant.

The 55th regiment goes to Paducah at once.

CAIRO, Jan. 22.

Lieut. J. R. McKane, of Co. K. 20th Illinois regiment, died to-day, at Bird's Point, of erysipelas.

A contraband who left Columbus on Thursday last, states that the rebels there were greatly alarmed in anticipation of an attack on that place, and many of the remaining inhabitants were leaving. According to his description of the extent of the camps and barracks, there cannot be more than 10,000 troops immediately at Columbus. They were erecting stockades and rifle pits at the rear land side of the fortifications.

The Ohio is rising rapidly, and threatens to overflow camp Holt, opposite this place. The troops will be removed from here in the morning.

The gun-boats got up steam to-day, and moored out of the stream, to avoid the drift.

It is reported to-night that rebels from Columbus have occupied Lovelaceville, on Mayfield Creek, where Gen. McClernand's brigade recently encamped. All of our troops have been withdrawn from Fort Jefferson.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.

The steamship Columbia, Havana 18th, arrived this evening.

Mexican news is to the 10th. Communication with the interior is cut off. A regiment of Spanish troops who started forth on the Medelin road for a reconnoisance were driven back, after proceeding a mile, by an unseen foe.

Our correspondent says Vera Cruz is surrounded inlandward, and almost besieged. No vegatables or fuel reach the city, and many articles of home necessity are sadly needed. Many of the Spanish troops are sick, and there are many desertions. There are great fears of an attack upon Vera Cruz. Several Spanish sentinels have been shot.

The American steamer Star had arrived at Vera Cruz with 4,000 guns and 3,000 pounds of powder, &c., for the Mexican republic. This was seized by the Spaniards, also a small lot of arms aboard the brig Puebla. More were expected and would also be confiscated.

The English, French, and Spanish flags wave over the castle of San Juan D'Ulloa; the French and English fleets have arrived. Gen. Prun was also at Vera Cruz, and considerable discontent existed among the French and English at a want of courtesy in the advance of the allied expedition, not having hoisted the three flags at first.

Three thousand men were to make a sortie to endeavor to clear the environs of the city that the market might be supplied with fresh provisions. Most of the French troops had disembarked.

Nassau dates are to the 12th. The English ship-of-war Conqueror will be a total loss. The crew reached Nassau, also forty cannon. The Gladiator was still in port with a cargo of arms, etc.

Com. McKeon had sent the Massachusetts, towing four schooners loaded with sand, to be sunk in Horn Island Pass. The health of the troops at Ship Island was excellent.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 23.

The news sta ion will be kept up at Cape Race all winter, and steamers to and from Europe, when practicable, will be boarded by the press yacht.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.

Specials contain the following:—The house military committee, to-day, authorized the chairman to report a bill to enlarge the Illinois and Michigan canal to a ship canal for war purposes.

A. J. Mead, of Kansas, has declined his appointment upon Gen. Lane's staff. It is understood that the staff announced will be confirmed as a whole by the senate.

A correspondent of the Times, writing from camp near Budd's Ferry, Md., says: The rebels on the opposite shore, not only frequently come down to the beach of a morning, derisively crying out to our pickets our countersign of the night previous, but acquaint them with what is known by but one officer of the entire division what is to be the countersign of the ensuing night. They also boast of having, by means of our countersign, traveled along our entire division lines and ascertained our exact locality, numbers, &c. If this be so, they must be familiar with our secret signals, which are now issued in connection with our countersign.

The Times says the postal reform bill, introduced by Mr. Colfax, now pending in the house, proposes a tax of three cents each on all telegraphic messages, except those on business of government of the company owning the line, and except, also, news and congressional reports of the press.

Mr. Holt, the predecessor of the present postmaster general, estimated that by telegraphic despatches government lost $1,000,-000 of revenue yearly.

Herald's dispatch.—Early this morning our advance pickets at Barrett's Hill saw 11 mounted rebels, at a distance of about two miles, on the Alexandria and Leesburg turnpike. They came within a mile of our picket line, and then turned up a dirt road, in the direction of Fairfax Court House. Subsequently Lieut. Seymour, of General Morrill's staff, went out with a detachment of dragoons, in quest of the reconnoitering rebels, but without obtaining any glimpse of them. This is the first time any rebel force has shown itself this side of Difficult creek, since the removal of their picket lines about a month ago.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.

The navy department has received dispatches from Flag Officer McKean, dated Ship Island, January 8th, in which he reports the arrival at that place of the United States steamer Meridon, and United States gunboats Winona and Sagamore. By the first named he had received the communication of the secretary of the navy, and says, in accordance therewith, he shall dispatch the frigate Potomac to Vera Cruz. Having been informed on the 31st of Dec. that a rebel steamer was at anchor near Bolixie, dispatched Commander Smith, with the steamers Water Witch, New London and Henry Lewis to capture her, but on reaching Bolixie it was found she had been removed. Commander Smith demanded the surrender of the town, which was complied with, and a detachment of seamen and marines landed. A small sand battery was destroyed, and two guns, a 9 and 6 pounder, brought off. The place was found almost deserted by the male population, but was crowded with women and children.— A schooner loaded with lumber was captured and brought out by the Henry Lewis. She is a very useful prize, the lumber being much needed by the army quartermaster for the construction of storehouses, and the schooner making a serviceable lighter.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 24.

This morning's papers contain full accounts of the battle of Mill Spring. It was a fair open battle. The rebels fought well, and were overcome only by the superior fighting on our side. According to rebel accounts their force consisted of ten infantry regiments, three batteries and some cavalry—altogether, about 10,000 men. They fought in bushwacking style, from ravines and behind trees, bushes and rocks. The brunt of the battle devolved on the 4th Kentucky, 2d Minnesota, 9th Ohio and 10th Indiana. For nearly three hours the roar of musketry was kept up. Shortly after 11 o'clock Col. Hoskins succeeded in flanking the enemy, on the extreme right, when the 9th Ohio and 2d Minnesota charged with the bayonet, with triumphant yells, which broke the rebel ranks and the rout began.

They fled pell mell to their camp, strewing the road with muskets, blankets, overcoats ank knapsacks, and abandoned two guns and cassons. Zollicoffer was shot through the heart, at the head of his staff, by Col. Fry of the 4th Kentucky regiment.

It appears Zollicoffer lost his way in the bushes, and suddenly emerged befor Col. Fry, who was accompanied by some staff officers. The two parties mistook each other for friends, and approached within a few yards of each other, when finding their mistake, they halted and prepared for a hand to hand conflict. One of Zollicoffer's aids shot at Col. Fry, but only brought his horse down. The federal Colonel immediately drew his six shooter, and brought Zollicoffer from his saddle at the first fire. The rebel staff deserted their chief's body, which was taken to Somerset the day after the battle.

An East Tennesean, writing to the Commercial, says: all the credit and honor of this battle is due to the 10th Indiana, 9th Ohio, 4th Kentucky and 2d Minnesota, for they did all the fighting single handed, with the exception of what support they recieved from the artillery. They all fought nobly and never wavered. The combatants were so near each other at one time that the powder burned their faces in the discharge of their pieces. The 2d Minnesota captured a banner from a Mississippi regiment on which was inscribed "Mississippi Butchers."

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.

Flour market a shade firmer, sales 7,500 bbls., 5,60a5,60 super western, 5,75a5,90 common to medium extra western. Wheat market quite firm, sales 35,000 bus. 1,29a 1,33 common to prime Chicago spring, 1,35 amber Iowa, 1,45 amber Michigan.

SOMETHING NEW.—A novel entertainment is announced at Lappin's Hall to-morrow evening. Several educated deaf mutes propose to give declamations in the sign language accompanied by pantomimic illustrations of various matters, such as shoeing an unruly horse, a negro stealing watermelons, &c. These declamations and illustrations will be explained by a competent person as they progress. Several war views and portraits of our public men will be exhibited by the magic lantern. We have not witnessed an exhibition by these mutes, but we know that many of that class of persons have rare powers of mimickry, and we think the proposed entertainment will be highly amusing and interesting.

CERTIFICATES

as to the value of

The Jessup Seed Drill.

THE following certificates have been given by persons using the Jessup Seed Drill:

FULTON.

Mr. Soverhill:—I take pleasure in saying that the Jessup Drill which I purchased of you last spring operates to my entire satisfaction. The draft is light, it distributes the grain very evenly and accurately, and there is no possibility of its cracking the grain. I am acquainted with the operation of many different drills and can cheerfully recommend the Jessup as a superior one. Yours, JOB LEN.

Mr. Soverhill:—The Jessup Drill I purchased of you last spring operates as well as I could wish it to. I would cheerfully recommend it to any one in want of a drill. WM. SHORT.

Albion, Dane county.

Mr. Soverhill:—I hereby certify that the Jessup Grain Drill I purchased of you last spring works in the most satisfactory manner. I think it a good and durable machine, and worthy the patronage of every good farmer. It is a saving in seed and labor.

Cooksville, Nov. 25, 1861. H. STEBBINS.

I have examined many drills and am satisfied that the Jessup is the best. I used one last spring and like it much. It is very accurate and light draft.

Bradford, Dec. 27, 1861. WALTER STONE.

Mr. Soverhill:—We cordially assent to what Mr. Stebbins says about the Jessup Drill.

New Year's Day at Pensacola---The Bombardment of Fort Pickens.

The Rhode Island has arrived, bringing news of another bombardment at Fort Pickens on the 1st inst., which lasted for 20 hours. I am gratified to say that no one was killed, and but one slightly wounded on our side. Col. Brown seems determined not to allow them to remain quiet, or else he may have opened the ball merely as a New Year's gift.

On the morning of the 1st inst., a small rebel steamer was observed from Fort Pickens making her way to the navy yard. She behaved in a very defiant manner, some one on board waving a rebel flag, which seemed to say, "You dare not fire at me." This was not to be borne with patience, as Col. Brown had frequently warned Gen. Bragg that the presence of these steamers would not be put up with. As she approached, Fort Pickens fired upon her, when she retreated in double quick time.

The fire from Fort Pickens was immediately answered from all the rebel batteries, and the engagement became general.—The firing was kept up throughout the day, and at night Pickens maintained a slow fire from the 13 inch mortars, which was hotly returned by the rebels. About eleven P. M. a fire broke out in the navy yard, which continued throughout the night, and from the extent of the conflagration it is supposed that the greater part of the buildings in the navy yard have been destroyed, and also the larger part, if not all of the town of Woolsey, which is adjoining the navy yard on the north.

The firing on both sides was remarkable for its extreme accuracy. Shells in countless numbers fell inside of Fort Pickens, and it is wonderful that no loss was sustained. Our side returned the compliment in equal proportion, but I have no doubt we will have the old story from Gen. Bragg, he took it all very coolly, and their loss was nothing.

The scene during the night was magnificent in the extreme. Every shell could be traced in its course through the air from the time it left the gun until it exploded; and this, in connection with the conflagration, rendered the whole affair a sight such as Pensacola, and but few other places, had never before witnessed. The illumination was so great that it was distinctly seen by the United State steamer Mercedita, when over 40 miles at sea.

All our batteries were engaged, and did their work admirably. Fort McRae, which had been so roughly handled by our squadron and Battery Scott at the last engagement, appeared to have resumed its accustomed vigor, for it kept up a constant fire throughout the engagement.

Several of the squadron were present, but took no part in the fight, and it was well they did not, for nothing could have been gained and probably much would have been lost, had they attempted to have opposed their wooden sides to stone walls and earthworks.

The bombardment was the old story of fort against fort, at a distance too great for any decisive result. We gain nothing, yet expend a great amount of powder, shot and shell, and they the same. Apart from Warrington, the navy yard and Woolsey, I doubt if we have done them any injury worth speaking of: and as for Fort Pickens, it is as strong as before the first bombardment. There were but few if any accidents worth recording during this affair. Col. Brown, by way of bravado, suspended a light outside of the fort, that the rebels might see where to fire at. Col, Brown is of the opinion that, had he 5,000 additional troops, he could take the navy yard and Forts McRea and Barrancas.

A Bit of a Row.—There was a bit of a row at Camp Randall last night at about nine o'clock in the evening. As we hear it, the story is that Col. Allen, of the 16th, who is the commanding officer of the camp, had a member of the Scandinavian regiment placed in the guard house for some violation of the rules of the camp. A large number of the Scandinavian regiment attempted to release him. Two companies of the 16th were detailed to protect the guard house. Upon this the whole Scandinavian regiment turned out, when the whole 16th were summoned together. The result was that the guard house was not violated, and nobody was hurt.—Madison Journal.

Arrival of Gen. Lane.—Gen. Lane and a portion of his staff have arrived in this city, en route for Kansas, where his expedition is now organizing, preparatory for a grand dash through the western frontier of secessia. A large number of our citizens called on him at the Tremont House this morning, and a serenade is preparing for him this evening. He will leave here for Fort Leavenworth to-morrow.

Much is expected of this famous western leader and his expedition, and he will not disappoint us. He is a "forward" man himself, and his army will have no boys' play. —Chicago Journal of Wednesday.

It is said that the real ruler of Spain is a nun by the name of Patrocino, who has acquired an almost unbounded influence over Queen Isabella. She professes to be an Ecstatica, or one gifted with miraculous powers, but her antecedents show that she was a convict, having been formally condemned by a local judge in Madrid for imposture, for having exhibited on her hands and feet the marks of the crucifixion. Yet at this time her supernatural pretensions are acknowledged by the court, and her advice, said to be dictated by the Pope, is asked on every emergency.

The London News, sharply rebuking the London Times for its cant about humanity apropos to an American war, observes:—"Impartial minds will judge newspapers as they judge men, not by the fine sentiments they may utter, but by the aim and tendency of their conduct, and will decline to believe in the superior humanity of those who are moving heaven and earth to entangle two Christian and Protestant nations in a fratricidal war."

The state of Illinois, through its legislature, appropriated two and a half millions of dollars towards carrying on the war.—Somebody has seen fit to contract debts for the state to the amount of one and a half millions beyond this sum. Comment is unnecessary.—Chicago Journal.

GREAT REDUCTION —IN— The Prices —OF— SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES,

[Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.
We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.
We have always on hand

Hemming Gauges, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.
Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.
☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.
☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.
The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.
The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Key West Correspondence New York Herald, 6th.

New Year's Day at Pensacola---The Bombardment of Fort Pickens.

The Rhode Island has arrived, bringing news of another bombardment at Fort Pickens on the 1st inst., which lasted for 20 hours. I am gratified to say that no one was killed, and but one slightly wounded on our side. Col. Brown seems determined not to allow them to remain quiet, or else he may have opened the ball merely as a New Year's gift.

On the morning of the 1st inst., a small rebel steamer was observed from Fort Pickens making her way to the navy yard. She behaved in a very defiant manner, some one on board waving a rebel flag, which seemed to say, "You dare not fire at me." This was not to be borne with patience, as Col. Brown had frequently warned Gen. Bragg that the presence of these steamers would not be put up with. As she approached, Fort Pickens fired upon her, when she retreated in double quick time.

The fire from Fort Pickens was immediately answered from all the rebel batteries, and the enagement became general.—The firing was kept up throughout the day, and at night Pickens maintained a slow fire from the 13 inch mortars, which was hotly returned by the rebels. About eleven P. M. a fire broke out in the navy yard, which continued throughout the night, and from the extent of the conflagration it is supposed that the greater part of the buildings in the navy yard have been destroyed, and also the larger part, if not all of the town of Woolsey, which is adjoining the navy yard on the north.

The firing on both sides was remarkable for its extreme accuracy. Shells in countless numbers fell inside of Fort Pickens, and it is wonderful that no loss was sustained. Our side returned the compliment in equal proportion, but I have no doubt we will have the old story from Gen. Bragg, he took it all very coolly, and their loss was nothing.

The scene during the night was magnificent in the extreme. Every shell could be traced in its course through the air from the time it left the gun until it exploded; and this, in connection with the conflagration, rendered the whole affair a sight such as Pensacola, and but few other places, had never before witnessed. The illumination was so great that it was distinctly seen by the United State steamer Mercedita, when over 40 miles at sea.

All our batteries were engaged, and did their work admirably. Fort McRae, which had been so roughly handled by our squadron and Battery Scott at the last engagement, appeared to have resumed its accustomed vigor, for it kept up a constant fire throughout the engagement.

Several of the squadron were present, but took no part in the fight, and it was well they did not, for nothing could have been gained and probably much would have been lost, had they attempted to have opposed their wooden sides to stone walls and earthworks.

The bombardment was the old story of fort against fort, at a distance too great for any decisive result. We gain nothing, yet expend a great amount of powder, shot and shell, and they the same. Apart from Warrington, the navy yard and Woolsey, I doubt if we have done them any injury worth speaking of; and as for Fort Pickens, it is as strong as before the first bombardment. There were but few if any accidents worth recording during this affair. Col. Brown, by way of bravado, suspended a light outside of the fort, that the rebels might see where to fire at. Col. Brown is of the opinion that, had he 5,000 additional troops, he could take the navy yard and Forts McRea and Barrancas.

A BIT OF A ROW.—There was a bit of a row at Camp Randall last night at about nine o'clock in the evening. As we hear it, the story is that Col. Allen, of the 16th, who is the commanding officer of the camp, had a member of the Scandinavian regiment placed in the guard house for some violation of the rules of the camp. A large number of the Scandinavian regiment attempted to release him. Two companies of the 16th were detailed to protect the guard house. Upon this the whole Scandinavian regiment turned out, when the whole 16th were summoned together. The result was that the guard house was not violated, and nobody was hurt.—Madison Journal.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. LANE.—Gen. Lane and a portion of his staff have arrived in this city, en route for Kansas, where his expedition is now organizing, preparatory for a grand dash through the western frontier of secessia. A large number of our citizens called on him at the Tremont House this morning, and a serenade is preparing for him this evening. He will leave here for Fort Leavenworth to-morrow.

Much is expected of this famous western leader and his expedition, and he will not disappoint us. He is a "forward" man himself, and his army will have no boys' play. —Chicago Journal of Wednesday.

It is said that the real ruler of Spain is a nun by the name of Patrocino, who has acquired an almost unbounded influence over Queen Isabella. She professes to be an Ecstatica, or one gifted with miraculous powers, but her antecedents show that she was a convict, having been formally condemned by a local judge in Madrid for imposture, for having exhibited on her hands and feet the marks of the crucifixion. Yet at this time her supernatural pretensions are acknowledged by the court, and her advice, said to be dictated by the Pope, is asked on every emergency.

The London News, sharply rebuking the London Times for its cant about humanity apropos to an American war, observes:—"Impartial minds will judge newspapers as they judge men, not by the fine sentiments they may utter, but by the aim and tendency of their conduct, and will decline to believe in the superior humanity of those who are moving heaven and earth to entangle two Christian and Protestant nations in a fratricidal war."

The state of Illinois, through its legislature, appropriated two and a half millions of dollars towards carrying on the war.—Somebody has seen fit to contract debts for the state to the amount of one and a half millions beyond this sum. Comment is unnecessary.—Chicago Journal.

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Legislative.

THURSDAY, Jan. 23.

SENATE.—Several bills were introduced and "progress" made on others, but nothing of startling importance occurred.

ASSEMBLY.—Nothing of special interest transpired during the morning hour in the assembly. Mr. Platto (dem.) was added to the war fund investigating committee.—The special order, Mr. Pope's resolutions in opposition to the doctrines of the so-called state rights resolutions of the legislature of 1859, was taken up, and the day fooled away in a rambling debate without taking any question on the resolutions.

County Board of Supervisors.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, Jan. 23.

The board met and proceeded to business.

The committee on settlement with county officers reported an examination into the books of the clerk of the board, and found them correct.

Mr. N. D. Parker was finally allowed $80 on his bill for services performed for the district attorney.

Several bills of small amounts were reported upon and allowed, and one or two of respectable size.

Mr. Carpenter proposed the following additional rule, which was adopted:

RULE 20.—No claim for costs in justices' courts will be allowed, unless the same sets forth the disposition of each case in which costs are charged, whether such costs were charged to the county or the parties, and the affidavit attached to said account, made by any person, whether justice, constable or witness, shall state that such costs were taxed to the county.

Adjourned to to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock.

FRIDAY MORNING, Jan. 24.

The board met pursuant to adjournment, and proceeded to the business of a final adjournment.

On motion of Mr. Parker, the thanks of the board were tendered to the chairman and clerk for the manner in which they have discharged their duties during the sessions of the board.

Orders were directed to be issued for the per diem and mileage of members of the board. Adjourned.

ROCK COUNTY CAVALRY.—Nathaniel Parker has been elected captain, F. A. Kimball 1st lieutenant, and J. C. Metcalf 2d lieutenant of the Rock county cavalry. Commissions have been issued, and the company ordered to report at the camp in Milwaukee next Tuesday.

APPOINTMENTS.—The president has nominated Judge Swain, of Ohio, to the United States supreme court bench to fill the place vacated by the death of Judge McLean, and the senate has confirmed the appointment of John L. Motley as minister to Austria.

TONING DOWN.—Among the most malignant of the pursuers of Gen. Fremont, from his coming to Missouri until he was superseded, has been the New York World, and ever since that time it has indulged its spite in occasional detraction. Some change has come over the spirit of its dream. The following paragraph from that paper seems to recognize some great qualities, at least, in the man who for months has been the target for envenomed abuse in the columns of the World:

"It would be a good thing to assign to General Fremont a command in the army adapted to his adventurous and enterprising temper. In a command which did not so much require organizing and combining faculties as activity and dash, he would probably acquire great personal distinction, and the multitudes who believe in him would forget his scotched emancipationisms in their admiration of his brilliant exploits."

So much is conceded for the present.—The time will come when the origin and motive of the combined assault on General Fremont in every form of calumnious accusations, will be understood. This is no time for controversy about the merits or demerits of any officer. There is other work to do. But we believe Gen. Fremont has abundant resources not only to defend his own reputation, but to overwhelm his accusers with disgraceful discomfiture.—St. Louis Democrat.

THE SIXTEENTH REGIMENT.—The following is a nearly complete list of the officers of this regiment, now in camp at Madison:

FIELD OFFICERS.

Colonel—Benjamin Allen.
Lieut. Colonel—Cassius Fairchild.
Major—Thomas Reynolds.
Adjutant—George M. Sabin.

Women should set good exambles, for the men are always following them.

Gen. Jim Lane at Chicago.

Gen. Lane arrived at Chicago on Tuesday night. The next day an immense assemblage of people called upon him at the Tremont. In the afternoon he reviewed the troops at Camp Douglas, to whom he made a speech, in which he expounded his views of the nature of the war, and expressed his ardent desire that they should accompany him on his great expedition.

In the evening Gen. Lane made the following speech to the people who gathered to pay their respects to him at the Tremont:

The General expressed his profound gratitude for the reception and the ardor and enthusiasm manifested. However much he might be delighted, he appreciated the fact that this enthusiasm was not on account of Jim Lane, but the fact that Jim Lane was the advocate of crushing out this rebellion so that we should never have another.

The uppermost fact in every loyal man's mind was that this rebellion must be crushed in some way. He knew there was not a loyal man present who was unwilling to lay down his own life, and sacrifice even his own family to accomplish this result. There was no resolution so strong among all true patriots as that, demanding that the rebellion must be put down so as to stay down. The curse of slavery has been agitated long enough, and it must now be radically cured. For eight long months the north has been contending against the rebels, and what have we got to show for it? What results have been accomplished—what advantages obtained? For eight long months the government has been prosecuting this war so as to hurt nobody. It is time some one was hurt. We were willing enough to kill white men in the south and to allow them to be killed in the north but we were afraid of committing sacrilege if we touched the sacred negro. [Cries of "that's so."] Yes, afraid to touch the sacred negro who has caused the whole of this trouble. But let me tell you the government has got over this notion, the people have got over it, and I think I can certify that this crowd have got over it. [Applause and cries of "yes, we have."] We have been permitted to discuss all questions human and divine, all questions of society, of morals and religion, to canvass the character of God and the nature of his laws, but have been forbidden to say a word about the viper which has stung us in our bosoms.

It is no time for talking now, but for action. We have consumed eight months in inactivity, have wasted three hundred millions of dollars and sacrificed twenty-five thousand lives, and turned this country upside down in our insane endeavors to put down this infernal rebellion and save slavery. I tell you it can't be done, and the government has come to that conclusion. Let me tell you, confidentially, that on Monday last they opened a new set of books and came to the conclusion that if the Union can't be saved and slavery saved, then down goes slavery. The rebels have either got to submit, to die or to run away. I tell you the time has come when play must stop.—The rebels must submit or be sent down forthwith to that hell already yawning to receive them.

This desirable consummation was effected by a compromise. The radical men agreed that the conservative men should carry on the war according to their notions, for eight months, provided they were allowed the next eight. The time is up for the conservatives, and they now hand the war and its conduct over to the radicals, and every conservative man should now extend the same encouragement and support which we gave to them in the prosecution of their method.

There are slaves in the south 680,000 strong and loyal male slaves who have fed and clothed the rebel army and have as good as fought upon their side. Government now proposes that these loyal slaves shall feed and clothe our army and fight on our side. The other day while I was talking with the President, old Abe said to me, "Lane, how many black men do you want to have to take care of your army?" I told him as my army would number 34,000 I proposed to have 34,000 contrabands in addition to my teamsters and wagon-masters. I consider every one of my soldiers engaged in this glorious crusade of freedom a knight errant, and entitled to his squire to prepare his food, black his boots, load his gun and take off his drudgery. Vanity and pride are necessary adjuncts of the soldier, and I do not propose to lower him by menial offices, nor compel him to perform the duties of a slave. So while I shall elevate the slave by giving him his freedom and making a man of him, I shall also elevate the soldier and leave him no work to do but fighting [A voice in the crowd—"What are you going to do with the niggers?"]

The General singling out the owner of the voice, and pointing his long finger at him, replied: "Ah, my friend, you are just the man I have been looking for. I will tell you what I am going to do with them. I am going to plant them on the soil of the gulf coast, after we have got through with this war, let them stay there and cultivate the land; have the government extend a protection to them, as it does to the Indians, and send superintendents and governors among them and pay them wages for their labor. There could be no competition between black and white labor." He believed, whether the rebels liked the idea or not, that the blacks at no distant day would have possession of that gulf country, to which they were acclimated and physically conditioned. He proposed to establish free state governments as he went along, and he could promise his hearers that either he or the rebels would be cleaned out.

After urging the benefit of a vigorous prosecution of the war, the General closed by again thanking the crowd for the handsome reception, and retired to the parlors amid most enthusiastic applause, where he was soon engaged in more presentations.

As regards the General's military movements during this visit, not much is known with certainty. The Mechanic Fusileers will probably join him at Fort Leavenworth, but an uncertainty exists as to which of the other regiments in Camp Douglas will be assigned to his expedition. The desire for participating in this forward movement is universal, and tenders of cavalry and infantry regiments are pouring in from every part of the country, especially from Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. Prominent officers have even designated their willingness to go as privates, such is the intense desire to be sharers in the great expedition and its glorious results.

General Lane and party left at 11-30 yesterday morning, by the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad.

VALUATION AND TAX OF ROCKFORD.—The valuation of the city of Rockford, which includes a large extent of farming lands, is $1,116,402. The assessed tax is $11,164,-01 for schools, $5,577 67 for interest, and $,586 35 for general purposes. Total, $22,-328 04.

If you are conscious of being green, and don't want folks to see it, try to be an invisible green.

Important from the Indian Country.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Fort Leavenworth, under date of Jan. 15th, says:

The news from the Indian country is of great interest. On the arrival home of the Indian delegations from Washington, they represented the magnitude of the federal forces, and their vast resources for carrying on the war, to the several tribes, who at once collected a large force and declared themselves in behalf of the Union. This Indian army, numbering near four thousand men, was placed under the command of Ho-pothe-yo-ho-la, an aged Creek chieftain who fought under Jackson in the war of 1812, and is at present well known to the national officers. The principal chiefs under him were Yusten-rick-co-chokme, Pascofar, Cho-fo-lop-haigo, Ah-ha-luck, Ynstemigo, and Sua-muckee-micco—mostly of the Seminoles.

This force, armed with common hunting rifles and bows and arrows, and stationed on the Verdegris river, near Coody's Bluffs, was attacked on Christmas day by Ben McCullough's Texan Rangers and a large force of rebel Indians, and after a desperate conflict was defeated. Two hundred of the Cherokees stood their ground until every man but one was killed. The Creeks fled before the desperate charge of the rangers. The Seminoles took advantage of the ground, and acquitted themselves in a manner worthy of the highest praise.

One incident of this battle for freedom we would fain notice, as the historian may fail to chronicle it, to-wit, the heroic conduct of Ho-pothe-yo-ho-la, the silver-haired chieftain in command, who, having been driven from his first position by an irresistible charge of the enemy, sought a second one, and declared his intention of dying rather than retreat further, and he was only prevented from carrying out this declaration by being seized by two of his warriors and carried off the field, whilst a dauntless band of his braves covered his retreat, by opposing the pursuing foe in the most unflinching and fearless manner. Three hundred Cherokees (commanded by John Ross) were stationed between the mouths of the Verdigris and Grand rivers. The latest intelligence from that quarter is that they were surrounded by the rebels, and it is supposed they have been entirely cut to pieces ere now.

The result of the war in the Indian Territory has proved very destructive to the loyal tribes who have been compelled to leave their towns to the mercy of an unsparing foe. It is the belief of the principal chiefs that they would have been able to have stood their ground had they not been destitute of ammunition. Gen. Hunter had ordered 4,500 pounds of ammunition to be loaded into wagons on yesterday, while Mr. Johnson, agent of the Delawares, secured the services of twenty-five warriors to serve as an escort, and the writer was to accompany the expedition; but before the arrival of the time appointed for our departure intelligence was received of the total rout of the loyal tribes, and their arrival in southern Kansas, where some thirteen thousand men, women and children are now awaiting assistance from the government—they being destitute, having to leave their homes in such haste as to prevent them from making the necessary preparation for their comfort. And when we consider that these hapless mortals were, in their destitute condition, forced to travel for eight days through an uninhabited country, we may have a faint realization of the amount of suffering which they must have endured. This news was received on yesterday evening, and on this morning Gen. Hunter depatched sixteen wagons, laden with ammunition, flour and bacon, to the relief of the reprtoed sufferers. E. H. Corruth, the celebrated mediator between the goverument and the Indians, will, by order of Gen. Hunter, start to southern Kansas on to-morrow, for the purpose of taking the census of all the tribes represented, and at the same time will organize the warriors into regiments, which will at once apply for acceptance into the government service, and will no doubt, prove efficient auxilaries, as Mr. Corruth, who has just arrived from their headquarters, reports them filled with revenge, and desirous of at once being led against an enemy who vanquished them, because destitute of the necessary munitions to enable them to make a successful resistance.

A telegraphic despatch from Leavenworth, dated Jan. 22, states that Hopthegohola, chief of the union Indians alluded to above, has arrived there to confer with Gen. Hunter, and that Col. Jennison's regiment of cavalry is ordered to the Indian country. It might be pertinent to enquire whether this massacre of loyal Indians would have occurred if Fremont had not been deprived of his command, and the army ordered to retreat from its advance towards the Indian country? Those who caused that ill-advised and shameful blunder have another sin to answer for in the present condition of the loyal tribes of that now desolated region.

General Order in Respect to the Battle at Mill Spring.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Jan. 22, 1862.

The President, commander-in-chief of the army and navy, has received information of a brilliant victory achieved by the United States forces over a large body of armed traitors and rebels at Mill Spring, in the state of Kentucky. He returns thanks to the gallant officers and soldiers who won that victory, and when the official reports shall be received, the military skill and personal valor displayed in the battle will be acknowledged and rewarded in a fitting manner. The courage that encountered and vanquished the greatly superior numbers of the traitor force, pursued and attacked them in their entrenchments, and paused not until the enemy was completely routed, merits and receives commendation.

(Signed) EDWIN M. STANTON.

DISLOYALTY OF GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.—The Potter committee, appointed by the house, says the correspondent of the New York Times, to investigate the fidelity of the clerks and other employees of the government about Washington, have suspended their labors and are preparing their report. It will be very long, and must create much excitement in the country, as the committee must come to the conclusion that at least five hundred persons employed in the departments here are disloyal to the government, and would rejoice to see Jeff. Davis in possession of Washington. The report will be very severe upon Mr. Smith, secretary of the interior, showing that Jacob Thompson's old disunion clerk and his own (Smith's family and friends) draw two-thirds of the salaries in his department. They charge that Mr. Smith and at least one other secretary have treated the respectful inquiries of a congressional committee with contempt, and balked their efforts to purge the public service of traitors. The sympathies of the country will be with the committee, for the people know that the government has been harrassed and nearly ruined by spies in Washington. The report will be finished this week, and published at an early day.

Last Night's Report.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 22.

A report by Adjutant General Harding to Gov. Gamble shows that nearly 33,882 Missouri troops have entered the federal service for three years or the war, of which 25,000 are infantry, 3,000 artillery and 6,000 cavalry. The number of militia organized under the Governor's call for six months men, was upwards of 6,000.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 22.

Gen. Thomas now reports the federal loss 39 killed and 127 wounded. Among the wounded is Col. McCook of the ninth Ohio and his aid, Lieutenant Burt, of the eighteenth U. S. Infantry.

The rebel loss was Zollicoffer and 114 others killed and buried, 116 wounded and 45 prisoners not wounded, five of which were surgeons and Lieut. Carter, of the seventeenth Tenn. regiment.

The prisoners say Geo. B. Crittenden was first in command, and Zollicoffer second.

Crittenden fled to the woods, taking the wrong road. It is supposed he will be captured.

The federal forces actively engaged was the tenth Indiana, fourth Kentucky, second Minnesota and ninth Ohio. Their respective loss is in the order named.—They were reinforced in the first and severest engagement by the tenth and twelfth Kentucky, first and second Tennessee, fourteenth, thirty-first, thirty-fifth and thirty-eighth Ohio, and Standard's, Whitmor's and Kenney's batteries.

The rebel force was estimated at 10,000.

Green C. Clay, of Bourbon county, son of Brutus Clay, aid to Schœpff, but with Gen. Thomas in the engagement, has just arrived, bringing an elegant silk flag, belonging to the rebels, inscribed:

"Presented to the Mountain Rangers, Capt. F. A. Ashford, by Mrs. W. D. Chardevoyne."

Col. S. S. Fry, of the fourth Kentucky, had his horse shot from under him by one of Zollicoffer's aids, when he turned and shot Zollicoffer through the left breast.

The first breaking of the rebel ranks was effected by Col. R. S. McCook, of Ohio, acting as brigadier general, ordering his regiment to charge bayonets, which put the rebels to flight.

The last order the rebels issued was found in their encampment, and was signed by Col. Cummings, directing the rebels to disperse and save themselves the best way they could.

The Journal says that General Thomas with a large force has crossed the Cumberland, is hunting the flying rebels through Wayne county.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.

House committee on judiciary, to-day, commenced the investigation of telegraph censorships.

The following was received at headquarters to-night, from Gen. Thomas:

The rout of the enemy is complete.—After getting two cannon and about fifty wagons across the river, they abandoned them with all the ammunition in the depot at Mill Spring. They then threw away their arms and dispersed through the mountains in the direction of Monticello, so demoralized that they will not make a stand short of Tennessee.

The property captured this side of the river is of great value, amounting to 8 six-pounders and 2 Parrott guns, with caisons filled with ammunition, about 400 four-horse wagons, about 1,200 horses and mules, boxes of arms, never opened, and from 500 to 1,000 muskets, mostly flint locks, subsistence stores for the entire army for three days, and a large amount of hospital stores.

Our loss is 39 killed and 127 wounded. The rebels lost 114 killed and buried, 116 wounded, and 45 prisoners—unwounded—5 of whom are surgeons, and Lieut. Col. Carter, of a Tennessee regiment.

BOSCOBEL, Jan. 23.

Wood train ran over a young man named Rufus J. Totten at this station this afternoon. He was foolishly trying to get on the train as it was passing the station. He fell between the cars and is badly mangled and can live but a short time. He was warned by the conductor to keep off the cars.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 23.

The Somerset correspondent of the Times gives the following account of the battle:—At 7 o'clock, Sunday morning, the enemy drove in the pickets of the 10th Indiana, stationed at the forks of the road, eight miles from Somerset. The 10th were drawn up in line of battle, and moved into the woods, where they were met by the enemy, six thousand strong, who instantly opened upon them. Gen. Thomas immediately ordered up the 9th Ohio, 2d Minnesota and 4th Kentucky, to the support of the 10th Indiana. The latter holding the enemy in check nearly half an hour, before being reinforced. The 1st and 2d Tennessee were ordered up on the right for the purpose of outflanking the enemy. Kinney's and Wetmore's batteries in the meantime shelling the enemy in the woods. After an engagement of nearly two hours, the 9th Ohio, 2d Minnesota, and 4th Kentucky made a desperate charge upon the enemy, drove them from the woods, completely routing and pursuing them to their entrenchments. At the heat of the engagement, Capt. Kinney ordered one section of his battery to within 60 yards of the enemy's line, and opened a deadly fire upon them, which added greatly to the success of the day.

Our advance arrived within sight of the enemy's entrenchments one hour before dark and opened upon them with shot and shell. Night closing in put a stop to further demonstrations.

At daylight next morning, a steamboat was observed transporting troops across the Cumberland, when Wetmore's battery of Parrott guns was brought to bear on the boat, which, in a few minutes afterwards, was in flames. The 4th Kentucky and 14th Ohio were ordered forward by Gen. Thomas, to charge on the enemy's breastworks; moving up in line of battle and scaling the entrenchments, they found the camp entirely deserted and everything standing as when occupied by the enemy. Houses, tents, horses, mules, wagons, baggage, cannon, ammunition and fire arms were found in perfect preservation. The enemy's forces in the attack were led by Crittenden and Zollicoffer, and were 8,000 strong. The federal force in the fight did not exceed 3,000.

CAIRO, Jan. 22.

The 55th Illinois regiment (Col Stuart's) has just arrived on the steamer D. A. January. They have been ten days on the river. The regiment is in good condition and in excellent spirits.

Capt. Dubarry, of the regular army, arrived here last night with orders to report for duty in the commissary department at this post.

The Ohio river has risen very rapidly, and much higher than for many seasons.—The garrison at Fort Holt is to be removed in consequence.

It is ascertained that a shell from one of the St. Louis gunboat's rifled guns exploded within the entrenchments near Columbus, killing and wounding 21 persons.

Preparations for an advance are now as actively progressing as before the late expedition.

Fort Jefferson is still occupied, and I judge will be in considerable force.

Troops are arriving every day. Everything in the movements indicates that Western Kentucky will be the field of operations for the forces under Gen. Grant.

The 55th regiment goes to Paducah at once.

CAIRO, Jan. 22.

Lieut. J. R. McKane, of Co. K. 20th Illinois regiment, died to-day, at Bird's Point, of erysipelas.

A contraband who left Columbus on Thursday last, states that the rebels there were greatly alarmed in anticipation of an attack on that place, and many of the remaining inhabitants were leaving. According to his description of the extent of the camps and barracks, there cannot be more than 10,000 troops immediately at Columbus. They were erecting stockades and rifle pits at the rear land side of the fortifications.

The Ohio is rising rapidly, and threatens to overflow camp Holt, opposite this place. The troops will be removed from here in the morning.

The gun-boats got up steam to-day, and moored out of the stream, to avoid the drift.

It is reported to-night that rebels from Columbus have occupied Lovelaceville, on Mayfield Creek, where Gen. McClernand's brigade recently encamped. All of our troops have been withdrawn from Fort Jefferson.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.

The steamship Columbia, Havana 18th, arrived this evening.

Mexican news is to the 10th. Communication with the interior is cut off. A regiment of Spanish troops who started forth on the Medelin road for a reconnoisance were driven back, after proceeding a mile, by an unseen foe.

Our correspondent says Vera Cruz is surrounded inlandward, and almost besieged. No vegatables or fuel reach the city, and many articles of home necessity are sadly needed. Many of the Spanish troops are sick, and there are many desertions. There are great fears of an attack upon Vera Cruz. Several Spanish sentinels have been shot.

The American steamer Star had arrived at Vera Cruz with 4,000 guns and 3,000 pounds of powder, &c., for the Mexican republic. This was seized by the Spaniards, also a small lot of arms aboard the brig Puebla. More were expected and would also be confiscated.

The English, French, and Spanish flags wave over the castle of San Juan D'Ulloa; the French and English fleets have arrived. Gen. Prun was also at Vera Cruz, and considerable discontent existed among the French and English at a want of courtesy in the advance of the allied expedition, not having hoisted the three flags at first.

Three thousand men were to make a sortie to endeavor to clear the environs of the city that the market might be supplied with fresh provisions. Most of the French troops had disembarked.

Nassau dates are to the 12th. The English ship of-war Conqueror will be a total loss. The crew reached Nassau, also forty cannon. The Gladiator was still in port with a cargo of arms, etc.

Com. McKeon had sent the Massachusetts, towing four schooners loaded with sand, to be sunk in Horn Island Pass. The health of the troops at Ship Island was excellent.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 23.

The news station will be kept up at Cape Race all winter, and steamers to and from Europe, when practicable, will be boarded by the press yacht.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.

Specials contain the following:—The house military committee, to-day, authorized the chairman to report a bill to enlarge the Illinois and Michigan canal to a ship canal for war purposes.

A. J. Mead, of Kansas, has declined his appointment upon Gen. Lane's staff. It is understood that the staff announced will be confirmed as a whole by the senate.

A correspondent of the Times, writing from camp near Budd's Ferry, Md., says: The rebels on the opposite shore, not only frequently come down to the beach of a morning, derisively crying out to our pickets our countersign of the night previous, but acquaint them with what is known by but oee officer of the entire division what is to be the countersign of the ensuing night. They also boast of having, by means of our countersign, traveled along our entire division lines and ascertained our exact locality, numbers, &c. If this be so, they must be familiar with our secret signals, which are now issued in connection with our countersign.

The Times says the postal reform bill, introduced by Mr. Colfax, now pending in the house, proposes a tax of three cents each on all telegraphic messages, except those on business of government of the company owning the line, and except, also, news and congressional reports of the press.

Mr. Holt, the predecessor of the present postmaster general, estimated that by telegraphic despatches government lost $1,000,-000 of revenue yearly.

Herald's dispatch.—Early this morning our advance pickets at Barrett's Hill saw 11 mounted rebels, at a distance of about two miles, on the Alexandria and Leesburg turnpike. They came within a mile of our picket line, and then turned up a dirt road, in the direction of Fairfax Court House. Subsequently Lieut. Seymour, of General Morrill's staff, went out with a detachment of dragoons, in quest of the reconnoitering rebels, but without obtaining any glimpse of them. This is the first time any rebel force has shown itself this side of Difficult creek, since the removal of their picket lines about a month ago.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.

The navy department has received dispatches from Flag Officer McKean, dated Ship Island, January 8th, in which he reports the arrival at that place of the United States steamer Meridon, and United States gunboats Winona and Sagamore. By the first named he had received the communication of the secretary of the navy, and says, in accordance therewith, he shall dispatch the frigate Potomac to Vera Cruz. Having been informed on the 31st of Dec. that a rebel steamer was at anchor near Bolixie, dispatched Commander Smith, with the steamers Water Witch, New London and Henry Lewis to capture her, but on reaching Bolixie it was found she had been removed. Commander Smith demanded the surrender of the town, which was complied with, and a detachment of seamen and marines landed. A small sand battery was destroyed, and two guns, a 9 and 6 pounder, brought off. The place was found almost deserted by the male population, but was crowded with women and children.—A schooner loaded with lumber was captured and brought out by the Henry Lewis. She is a very useful prize, the lumber being much needed by the army quartermaster for the construction of storehouses, and the schooner making a serviceable lighter.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 24.

This morning's papers contain full accounts of the battle of Mill Spring. It was a fair open battle. The rebels fought well, and were overcome only by the superior fighting on our side. According to rebel accounts their force consisted of ten infantry regiments, three batteries and some cavalry—altogether, about 10,000 men. They fought in bushwacking style, from ravines and behind trees, bushes and rocks. The brunt of the battle devolved on the 4th Kentucky, 2d Minnesota, 9th Ohio and 10th Indiana. For nearly three hours the roar of musketry was kept up. Shortly after 11 o'clock Col. Hoskins succeeded in flanking the enemy, on the extreme right, when the 9th Ohio and 2d Minnesota charged with the bayonet, with triumphant yells, which broke the rebel ranks and the rout began.

They fled pell mell to their camp, strewing the road with muskets, blankets, overcoats ank knapsacks, and abandoned two guns and cassons. Zollicoffer was shot through the heart, at the head of his staff, by Col. Fry of the 4th Kentucky regiment.

It appears Zollicoffer lost his way in the bushes, and suddenly emerged befor Col. Fry, who was accompanied by some staff officers. The two parties mistook each other for friends, and approached within a few yards of each other, when finding their mistake, they halted and prepared for a hand to hand conflict. One of Zollicoffer's aids shot at Col. Fry, but only brought his horse down. The federal Colonel immediately drew his six shooter, and brought Zollicoffer from his saddle at the first fire. The rebel staff deserted their chief's body, which was taken to Somerset the day after the battle.

An East Tennesean, writing to the Commercial, says: all the credit and honor of this battle is due to the 10th Indiana, 9th Ohio, 4th Kentucky and 2d Minnesota, for they did all the fighting single handed, with the exception of what support they recieved from the artillery. They all fought nobly and never wavered. The combatants were so near each other at one time that the powder burned their faces in the discharge of their pieces. The 2d Minnesota captured a banner from a Mississippi regiment on which was inscribed "Mississippi Butchers."

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.

Flour market a shade firmer, sales 7,500 bbls., 5,50a5,60 super western, 5,75a5,90 common to medium extra western. Wheat market quite firm, sales 35,000 bus. 1,29a 1,33 common to prime Chicago spring, 1,35 amber Iowa, 1,45 amber Michigan.

SOMETHING NEW.—A novel entertainment is announced at Lappin's Hall to-morrow evening. Several educated deaf mutes propose to give declamations in the sign language accompanied by pantomimic illustrations of various matters, such as shoeing an unruly horse, a negro stealing watermelons, &c. These declamations and illustrations will be explained by a competent person as they progress. Several war views and portraits of our public men will be exhibited by the magic lantern. We have not witnessed an exhibition by these mutes, but we know that many of that class of persons have rare powers of mimickry, and we think the proposed entertainment will be highly amusing and interesting.

McKEY & BRO'S

JANUARY CIRCULAR

For 1862.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

To the People of

Janesville, Rock & adjoining Counties

McKey & Bro's

MAMMOTH STORE

FULLY COMPLETED

and

READY FOR BUSINESS.

WE have now completed our new addition, making our store decidedly the largest business establishment west of New York city; size, 44 feet, by 160, five stories high including basement. And in order to fill the same, we found it necessary in the early part of the season, to purchase ten times our usual amount of stock. Anticipating a still further advance on Foreign and Domestic goods, we made another extensive purchase immediately before the great and unprecedented advance which has taken place within the past two weeks. We have now in stock, at our different establishments, over $250,000 Worth of Merchandize!

Every single dollars worth of which was purchased before the advance, and in order to give our patrons a general benefit, we shall, for the

Next 20 Days, Sell at Retail Only,

the following goods at the prices mentioned, namely:

Our entire stock of perfectly

FAST COLORED PRINTS

at 10 cents per yard. Let the people bear in mind that Prints have advanced in price 50 per cent; still we have concluded to close out the amount of our retail stock of Prints, being the very best brands in the market, at 10 Cents per Yard.

We have now on hand

10 Cases Madder Color Prints

suitable for bedding, which we will sell, for the next 20 days, at 16 yards for $1, worth this day in Chicago 10 cents per yard at wholesale. The above prices are for the retail trade exclusively.

5,000 Chenille Scarfs

at 12½ cents each

Just received, five cases of plain, solid color

DE LAINES!

which we offer, for the next 20 days, at prices even lower than prints, namely: 12 yards for $1. Just imagine,

Eight Pence per Yard for DeLaines.

3,000 pieces fancy figured DeLaines, nice small patterns, of the very best printing, which we offer for the next 20 days, at one shilling per yard, or eight yards for $1, the same price as prints.

We would ask attention to the following: our entire stock of splendid

Manchester and Pacific DeLaines,

sold to-day in New York City at 25 cents, we now offer, for the next 20 days, at 1 shilling 6 pence per yard, or 10 yards for $1,88, which is the retail price of prints in many cities of this state to-day.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

is well filled with a select stock of

Ribbons, Flowers, Plumes, Trimmings, &c.,

and presents great inducements to customers.

We call particular attention to our

Dress Goods Department.

Having purchased in the early part of December 6,000 pieces of different styles of Dress Goods, at the great closing auction sales of the season, from Wilderming, Hogart & Humbert, William Topping & Co., Wildermining & Mount, Hagarty & Co., Rudrow, Jones & Co., and Lockwood Brothers, where no goods are sold but by the case, direct from the Importers. And having purchased exclusively for cash, enables us this day to offer to our customers some

FOREIGN DRESS GOODS

as cheap as a common DeLaine, and in many cases as low as the present tariff prices. For instance, we now offer 100 pieces splendid Repps, ¾ yard wide at 2 shillings per yard, elegantly printed and of the most modern designs, and sold by us in the early part of the season at 50 cents per yard. We now offer, for the next 20 days, 100 pieces of double width Repps, sold by us last month at 63 cents per yard, now only 44 cents. All our

Mohairs, Poplins, French Merinos, Plain Repps

and many other styles at an equal reduction. Our stock of

CLOAKS AND SHAWLS

is now much larger than at any time previous this season, and in order to close them out we offer the entire stock at a

from 20 to 40 per cent from last week's prices.

We have recently fitted up a spacious

Carpet Room

the entire length of our store, and filled it to its utmost capacity with a splendid stock of

Carpets and Oil Cloths,

purchased before the great advance on Woolens and Cottons.

OUR STOCK OF CLOTHING

is large and varied, and also comprises Hats, Caps, Furnishing Goods, Buffalo Robes, Furs, &c., all purchased previously to the great advance—yet, for the purpose of closing out the entire stock, we now offer it at a Great Reduction.

Garments Made and Cut to Order.

Hoop Skirts!

We call the particular attention of the ladies to our unequaled stock of Hoop Skirts, comprising the Belle Trail, Four Cord Diamond Skirts which we now offer at

FOUR CENTS PER ROW.

Also, the new Wove Tape Skirts with sealed tabs and patent fastenings, which we had made to order in New York city, and are warranted never to Get Out of Shape.

Also a large assortment of these much worn Balmoral Skirts, and very cheap.

IN CONCLUSION,

we beg leave to assure our customers that we will continue to do business upon the principle which has heretofore given such general satisfaction, and our store such wide-spread reputation. Make no purchases until you have paid a visit to our establishment, where you will find a greater variety, larger stock and

than any other store in this part of the world. Persons living at a distance, in the purchase of the small sum of five dollars, can make sufficient to pay the expense by coming to our store to trade, as from 25 to 50 per ct.

CAN BE SAVED

by purchasing at our house, in comparison to prices paid at country stores.

SECOND GREAT ARRIVAL

OF

Fall and Winter Goods!

AT THE

NEW AND POPULAR STORE

OF

RIORDAN & LEECH,

Main Street, Janesville.

OWING to the immense trade we have done since commencement in this city, (a trade which far exceeded our most sanguine expectations,) we have been enabled to add to our already well selected and extensive stock a still greater variety of

NEW AND DESIRABLE GOODS,

all of which have been purchased previous to the late advance, thereby giving us the advantage of merchants who have been obliged to pay a far higher rate for goods purchased within the past week or two; we shall therefore continue to sell at prices which are sure to give satisfaction, and which have given us the character of

The Cheapest Store in Janesville, and which we are determined to maintain during our whole business career.

We call particular attention to our extensive variety of

DRESS GOODS,

comprising the latest styles in market: beautiful figured and plain Merinoes, all colors, Ottoman Repps, Silk Poplins, double width Broches, black and white check Valentias, Cordennas, Coburgs, &c., &c., together with an elegant assortment of

of the very richest styles.

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS.

In this department we have always been able to boast of the best selection in town and have added all the Different Styles Lately Manufactured, thereby enabling us to offer the

HANDSOMEST LOT OF CLOAKS

to be found in any city of the west, not even excepting Chicago. Our stock of Broche, Square and Long Shawls are cheaper than ever before offered in this city, being the importation of Thirion Mallaird & Co. and purchased at auction at about one half their actual value.

We have on hand an elegant variety of

consisting of Fitch, French Cooney, Mink, &c., &c., with

MUFFS TO MATCH,

and which we offer

Twenty-Five Per Cent Lower than any other establishment in this city, a fact fully admitted by all who have purchased of us. Our Furs are entirely new and warranted free from moths.

It is unnecessary for us to enumerate our stock.

Call, Examine and Judge for Yourselves.

We feel grateful for the extensive patronage bestowed on us and hope to merit its continuation.

2. Any children under the age of fifteen years, having no mother living, and having a father enlisted in said military service, shall each be entitled to the sum of two dollars per month, in the manner provided in said section 3 of this act.

SEC. 11. At any time after the town or ward chairman shall have filed with the county treasurer the applications and certificates provided in section five, seven, or ten, hereof, the county treasurer may receive the certificates of the supervisors for expenditures made from said fund of the town and city treasurer to apply on their return for said fund. But in no case shall the county treasurer receive such certificates to exceed in amount the amount due said cities or towns as appears from the list provided by section nine hereof.

SEC. 12. Said fund shall constitute a special relief fund for the aid of the families of volunteers, and shall not be used for any other purpose.

I hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the original now on file in my office, passed by the board of supervisors of the county of Rock, the 20th day of January, 1862. S. L. JAMES,
Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Rock Co.

McKEY & BRO'S JANUARY CIRCULAR For 1862.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

To the People of

Janesville, Rock & adjoining Counties

McKey & Bro's

MAMMOTH STORE

and

READY FOR BUSINESS.

WE have now completed our new addition, making our store decidedly the largest business establishment west of New York city; size, 44 feet by 160, five stories high including basement. And in order to fill the same, we found it necessary in the early part of the season, to purchase ten times our usual amount of stock. Anticipating a still further advance on Foreign and Domestic goods, we made another extensive purchase immediately before the great and unprecedented advance which has taken place within the past two weeks. We have now in stock, at our different establishments, over $250,000 Worth of Merchandize!

Every single dollars worth of which was purchased before the advance, and in order to give our patrons a general benefit, we shall, for the

Next 20 Days, Sell at Retail Only,

the following goods at the prices mentioned, namely: Our entire stock of perfectly

FAST COLORED PRINTS

at 10 cents per yard. Let the people bear in mind that Prints have advanced in price 50 per cent; still we have concluded to close out the amount of our retail stock of Prints, being the very best brands in the market, at 10 Cents per Yard.

We have now on hand

10 Cases Madder Color Prints

suitable for bedding, which we will sell, for the next 20 days, at 16 yards for $1, worth this day in Chicago 10 cents per yard at wholesale. The above prices are for the retail trade exclusively.

5,000 Chenille Scarfs

at 12½ cents each

Just received, five cases of plain, solid color

DE LAINES!

which we offer, for the next 20 days, at prices even lower than prints, namely: 12 yards for $1. Just imagine,

Eight Pence per Yard for DeLaines.

3,000 pieces fancy figured DeLaines, nice small patterns, of the very best printing, which we offer for the next 20 days, at one shilling per yard, or eight yards for $1, the same price as prints.

We would ask attention to the following: our entire stock of splendid

Manchester and Pacific DeLaines,

sold to-day in New York City at 25 cents, we now offer, for the next 20 days, at 1 shilling 6 pence per yard, or 10 yards for $1,88, which is the retail price of prints in many cities of this state to-day.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

is well filled with a select stock of

Ribbons, Flowers, Plumes, Trimmings, &c.,

and presents great inducements to customers.

We call particular attention to our

Dress Goods Department.

Having purchased in the early part of December 5,-000 pieces of different styles of Dress Goods, at the great closing auction sales of the season, from Wilderming, Hogart & Humbert, William Topping & Co., Wilderming & Mount, Hagarty & Co., Rudrow, Jones & Co., and Lockwood Brothers, where no goods are sold but by the case, direct from the Importers. And having purchased exclusively for cash, enables us this day to offer to our customers some

FOREIGN DRESS GOODS

as cheap as a common DeLaine, and in many cases as low as the present tariff prices. For instance, we now offer 100 pieces splendid Repps, ¾ yard wide at 2 shillings per yard, elegantly printed and of the most modern designs, and sold by us in the early part of the season at 50 cents per yard. We now offer, for the next 20 days, 100 pieces of double width Repps, sold by us last month at 63 cents per yard, now only 44 cents. All our

Mohairs, Poplins, French Merinos, Plain Repps

and many other styles at an equal reduction. Our stock of

CLOAKS AND SHAWLS

is now much larger than at any time previous this season, and in order to close them out we offer the entire stock at a

from 20 to 40 per cent from last week's prices.

We have recently fitted up a spacious

Carpet Room

the entire length of our store, and filled it to its utmost capacity with a splendid stock of

Carpets and Oil Cloths,

purchased before the great advance on Woolens and Cottons.

OUR STOCK OF CLOTHING

is large and varied, and also comprises Hats, Caps, Furnishing Goods, Buffalo Robes, Furs, &c., all purchased previously to the great advance—yet, for the purpose of closing out the entire stock, we now offer it at a Great Reduction.

Garments Made and Cut to Order.

Hoop Skirts!

We call the particular attention of the ladies to our unequaled stock of Hoop Skirts, comprising the Belle Trail, Four Cord Diamond Skirts which we now offer at

FOUR CENTS PER ROW.

Also, the new Wove Tape Skirts with sealed tabs and patent fastenings, which we had made to order in New York city, and are warranted never to Get Out of Shape.

Also a large assortment of these much worn Balmoral Skirts, and very cheap.

IN CONCLUSION,

we beg leave to assure our customers that we will continue to do business upon the principle which has heretofore given such general satisfaction, and our store such wide-spread reputation. Make no purchases until you have paid a visit to our establishment, where you will find a greater variety, larger stock and

than any other store in this part of the world. Persons living at a distance, in the purchase of the small sum of five dollars, can make sufficient to pay the expense by coming to our store to trade, as from 25 to 50 per ct.

CAN BE SAVED

by purchasing at our house, in comparison to prices paid at country stores.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

A Great National Work.

Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside, Every Rader!

NO MAN, NO FAMILY, NO OFFICE SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
Cash Capital over - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the Story as it is, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.
